- No.35 The Shareholders' Meeting of the Company shall be arranged in the area of the Head Office's location or the adjacent province or any place determined by the Board of Directors.
- No.36 The Board of Directors shall call a Shareholders' Meeting at least once a year which is an "Annual Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders". The Meeting shall be held within four (4) months after the last day of the fiscal year of the Company.

Shareholders' Meetings other than the one referred to in the first paragraph shall be called "Extraordinary General Meetings".

The Board of Directors may call an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders any time the Board considers it expedient to do so. One or more shareholders holding shares amounting to not less than ten (10) percent of the total number of shares sold may submit a written request to the Board of Directors for calling an Extraordinary General Meeting at any time, but the subjects and reasons for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. In this regard, the Board of Directors shall proceed to call a Shareholders' Meeting to be held within forty-five (45) days as from the date of receipt of such request from the shareholders.

In case the Board of Directors does not hold the meeting within the period as prescribed under the third paragraph, the shareholders who subscribe their names or other shareholders holding the number of shares as required may call such meeting within forty-five (45) days from the completion of such period. In this regard, the meeting shall be considered as the shareholders' meeting called by the Board of Directors. The Company shall be responsible for necessary expenses arising from such meeting and reasonably provide facilitation.

In the case that the quorum of the meeting convened as requested by the shareholders according to the fourth paragraph cannot be formed as required by this Articles of Association, the shareholders under the fourth paragraph shall be jointly responsible for any expenses incurring from the convening of such meeting.

- No.37 In calling a Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a written notice calling the meeting that states the place, date, time, agendas of the meeting and the matters to be proposed to the meeting with reasonable details by indicating clearly whether it is the matter proposed for information, for approval, or for consideration, as the case may be, including the opinions of the Board of Directors in the said matters, and the said notice shall be delivered to the shareholders and the Registrar for their information at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. If the consideration of the matters referred to in the first paragraph is finished, the shareholders holding shares amounting to not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of shares sold may request the meeting to consider the matters other than those indicated in the notice calling for the meeting.

If the meeting has not concluded the consideration of the matters according to the sequence of the agendas as referred to in the first paragraph, or the matters raised by the shareholders under the second paragraph, as the case may be, and it is necessary to postpone the consideration of the meeting, the meeting shall determine the place, date and time for the next meeting and the Board of Directors shall, not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting, deliver to the shareholders notice calling for the meeting which indicates the place, date, time and agendas of the meeting. The notice calling for the meeting shall also be published consecutively in a newspaper not less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting.
